

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Star of Indiana-Produced “Amanda” Featured with Johnny Depp and Christian Bale in Gangster Epic “Public Enemies”

Indianapolis, IN – June 15, 2009 – Good timing enabled Indianapolis production company, Adrenaline Motion Pictures, the opportunity to cast up-and-coming movie actor Randy Ryan as the male lead in the romantic comedy, Amanda. Ryan will first be seen next month co-starring in the much-anticipated Michael Mann gangster pic, Public Enemies. The action film stars Johnny Depp as the infamous John Dillinger and Christian Bale as FBI agent Melvin Purvis.

Ironically, Ryan was in Indiana just last year while filming scenes shot at the historic jail in Crown Point, where Dillinger was actually held. Ryan spent three months on the production of Public Enemies. He plays FBI agent Julius Rice and is featured in several scenes with star Bale. The movie will be released nationally on July 1.

In Amanda, Ryan stars as a successful bachelor who turns 40 and believes true romance has passed him by. Then, he meets Amanda at his surprise birthday party. A furious romance and quick wedding ensues until Amanda reveals a secret that turns Joe’s world upside down. The movie also stars Phoenix theater standout, Doug Johnson, LA actress Amy Esacove, and introducing former New York model, Ariana Dubynin, as Amanda. The rest of the robust cast are Indiana actors. Amanda was shot entirely in downtown Indianapolis this past April and May. www.amandathemovie.com

Written and directed by Indiana native, Steve Marra, Amanda is now in post-production at an Indianapolis editing studio and special screenings will be held at local theaters this August. A distribution deal is in the works for the movie.
